

FREE FILM SCREENING

intelligent lives

IN CELEBRATION OF DEVELOPMENTAL DISABILITY AWARENESS MONTH

Join the Michigan Developmental Disabilities Council and Detroit Wayne Mental Health Authority for a free filming screening of INTELLIGENT LIVES which features three young adults with intellectual and developmental disabilities as they navigate life. The film unpacks the shameful and ongoing use of intelligence testing in the United States.

A facilitated discussion will follow the screening.

Who should attend?: Youth with disabilities and their families, educators, transition specialists, employers and businesses, higher education staff and faculty, disability advocates, students, legislators, decision makers, community leaders, church and civic leaders, members of the general public.

Light lunch will be provided
